

The development plan for this 123-acre site creates a mixed-use commercial/residential town center and three distinctive single family residential neighborhoods. The town center incorporates 25,000 sf of office, 95,000 sf of retail and several hundred multi-family units, many over ground floor commercial space.